How wonderful – 50 years! That is indeed a great milestone for Calvin to be celebrating together. Thank you so much for letting us know of your time of rejoicing and for allowing us to add our personal words of congratulations to all the others that will be coming your way by means of letter or video.

It takes a blending of tenacity, patience, and mostly faithfulness to reach the 50-year marker. And for all of that you are to be congratulated. We are thankful that the Lord led us to share some of that time with you. So, as you enjoy your big day, do give thanks to the Lord who has guided and lead you through each challenge, blessed you with each victory, and He is the one who will continue to love and guide you in the years that stretch out ahead.

There are troubled days that lie ahead. As Paul said to Timothy, "...the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine...They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths. But to you, keep your head in all situations." Thank God that in Christ all things are possible – even the awarding of the crown of righteousness.

To God be the glory, great things He hath done!

Grace and peace,
